THE NEXT LEVEL OF PASSENGER COMFORT

CONNECT YOUR PASSENGERS, ENGAGE CUSTOMER LOYALTY

In-flight connectivity represents an entirely new level of passenger comfort, with the potential to stimulate customer loyalty. To meet the demands of today's air travelers, we have optimized our Wi-Fi platform for in-flight use.

To take rates to new heights, easy access is a must

As one of the world's leading and most innovative telecommunication companies, we focus on serving end customers from A to Z – and make no compromise to deliver the best possible Internet experience.

Attract users with discounts or delight your valuable customers

Deutsche Telekom's Discount Code System is more than just a simple way to provide discounts! This high performance solution also offers airlines up-selling opportunities.

Provide free access to premium customers

Why not give free access to your most valued passengers? Distribute personalized free access codes via email newsletters or other online campaigns.

Best-in-Class customer service

Our international customer service is available 24/7 via email or telephone. Your passengers benefit from the service quality of a leading European telecommunications provider with more than ten years of Wi-Fi service experience.
